

Prayer Bulletin

June 14, 2020

- Krystyn Broersma is undergoing a preventative double mastectomy with reconstruction, on Monday June 15, due to a large history of cancer in the family. Pray for a good recovery. (To help with meals, watch for the sign up on Facebook or call Kim Dietlin.)
- Michelle Wolf had another surgery Monday, June 8 to have a pacemaker placed in her brain; pray for a good outcome. She will have a second surgery in July to place a second one. This stage will give the doctors the ability to remotely program the electrodes that were inserted last fall to help control seizures.
- Jan Segard has two tears in the meniscus of her left knee, with lots of pain. She is a good candidate for surgery, which is planned for June 29. Pray that it might be moved up; Jan is experiencing increasing pain.
- Tim and Annie Beimers' sister-in-law Meghan Beimers had another MRI and results showed that the cancer continues to spread in her brain. Doctors do not think the treatments are working, but Meghan continues to fight. Please pray for strength, peace, and comfort for Meghan, Jordan, and their children as they make difficult decisions in the coming weeks.
- Reilley Leary, Nate and Kim's 1-yr-old daughter, has been having increased seizures of two kinds as a result of a benign mass in her brain (a genetic condition). Nate and Kim were told that surgery is recommended, soon. Pray for comfort and wisdom as they wait for a date to be set.
- Pat Fry's father, age 91, passed away from complications of congestive heart failure on May 23; there was a small service for the family that week.
- Roger Leary underwent a procedure to stretch his esophagus to help with swallowing. He's improving and appreciates the prayers.
- Coila Kennedy had knee replacement surgery Thursday, May 14. Pray for good results and reduced pain as a result. Dave had his second carpal tunnel hand surgery and is doing well.
- Matt and Rahnee Jorgensen, who attend Berean, must find affordable housing in Grand Rapids by July. Pray for God to lead them to a good place.
